MURDERS.
KIDNAPPINGS.
A DEADLY BIOAGENT.

CAN ONE MAN STOP THEM ALL?

An anonymous attacker known only by the alias Terror's Sword is heading to the U.S. with an unidentified bioweapon. His mission: destroy America. Intelligence agencies can't identify the terrorist and his bioagent, and scientists urgently pursuing a cure conclude the highly contagious virus cannot be defeated. The president taps elite counterterrorism operative Kyle McEwan to hunt down the shadowy mastermind and eliminate the threat. Global survival hangs in the balance. Who will prevail?

This award-winning, #1 bestselling thriller is a powerful saga providing edge-of-your-seat high-octane action, psychological interplays, and electrifying twists from beginning to end. Prominent reviewers proclaim Kyle McEwan follows in the footsteps of iconic protagonists Jack Ryan, Jack Reacher, Jason Bourne, and Scot Harvath.

Kevin Kuhens had an international career as a civilian supervisory special agent for the U.S. Department of Defense, with the Office of Naval Intelligence, Naval Investigative Service (now known as NCIS), and the Pentagon's criminal investigative arm, DCIS. Kevin immerses readers in the inner workings of law enforcement, military, and intelligence operations that thwart terror threats.
